

FRANK RIZZO 1987

183-191 Description of project
192 Names of people in diner 194-239 Maintenance of "Jennifer B". Caulking, packing, sanding. Stern gets most worn. Vibration. Wood boats have bolts. How water affects deterioration. Ribs and planks. No rivets 240 Sanding and painting schedule. December - February, 6 week project. Taken out of water to check bottom. Then put back in to prevent swelling 270 Who he learned from. Al at Obie's marina 279 Professional carpenter 280 Vidas shop. Al is more flexible. Contractor. Willie does his nets 294 Maintenance. Bondo - fiberglass epoxy. Changed planks before epoxy came around 307 2" x 8-12' planks. Timbers 8" x 8" - chines - bottom part of boat. Notched several kinds. Opinion of George Schmidt and Al 336 Time in maintenance
346 Mahogany throughout. Cost of building one today $750,000.
Labor. $100,000. in materials 372 Today's boats: aluminum, fiberglass, steel. Started 1970's late 382 "Jennifer B" should last another 30 years. Boat neglected.
Previous owners. George Schmidt 1st owner
417 Boat built in 1972
426 Al Grover and boats
434 Patience in business. His character. Mechanical oriented 467 Why he likes the business - watching people catch fish.
December and restocking end

Frank Rizzo part 2 1987

001 December policy and size limit
008 Good vs. bad fishermen. Depletion of fish. New kinds of fish reappeared 020 What is a seasoned fisherman and how he learns. Qualities needed to be a good captain 034 Chumming. Experienced vs. new fishermen. Kinds of bait and fishing 048 Bait and worms - prices. Kinds of worms. Sources for them
064 Clams and mussels as bait
066 Why worms became popular 079-116 Types of clam bait. Lost. $12. - $14. bushel. Who shucked them. Role of shell. How it attracted fish. When bait was prepared 117-126 Preparing bait. Kosher salt used 127 Smoking fish joke
133 Eating fish. Game eating
140-156 Granny Smith apples
157-74 Other hunters - duck. George Schmidt
175-92 Name of boat - after daughter. Names of boats. Historic names 193-237 Scary story: seeing a U.S. submarine. Sept. 1984. U.S. fighter ship appeared. Left area. Thought it was a Russian submarine 238 Who he learned from: Lindroffs
250 Getting to be a captain. 3 year process. Written exam. Books and experience 271 Importance of experience. Process of fishing 300-325
Wrecks and what growth attracts which fish 326 Maps of areas. Didn't use them. Learn from old-timers. How brazen guys start out. Saying for beginners "the dumber the farmer the happier the potatoes"
364 Experienced fishers. Role of luck
383-443 Funniest story. Snapper clamped on to his friends hand. of killeys 443 Scary story: Aug 1984. Shark on rod reel shark brought onto boat by wave. Broke off arm of chair. Captured shark

SIDE B

001 No scary stories about whales. Whales that came to the boat. How dolphins play 023 Scary story. Feb. 1987 plane comes over to boat. Thought it was going to crash into him 040 Rum runners. Drug runners. Ignores it

046-064 Drinking on boats - who does it. Tries to control it.
Incidents

066 Enjoys watching beginners. How captains need to treat people

081 Competition among captains. Zoo charters today

090 Pollution. Nuclear waste

099 Need a good attitude to be a good fisherman. Qualities needed

113-115 Final words