

AUDIO TAPE INDEX FORM

Interviewee: Lynn and Larry Benedict

Interviewer: Dick Koerner

Interview Date: July 17, 2007

Summary description of tape contents:

Lynn and Larry Benedict talk about their experiences with sturgeon spearing on Lake Winnebago, Wisconsin. They discuss changes in spearing over the years, some of their most exciting experiences related to sturgeon spearing, and how the weather on the lake impacts fishing.

Brief Tape Index

Time	Topic
00:00	Introduction
00:18	Personal histories
00:46	Lynn Benedict's introduction to spearing
00:55	Larry Benedict's introduction to spearing
01:27	Hook and line fishing
01:42	Opinions on new regulations
02:37	Larry Benedict has never missed a year, but one year was close
05:40	Missing fish
06:39	100 pounders
08:35	Respect for the lake
09:45	Lynn Benedict's first fish
11:19	Missed fish and lost shanty
12:20	Red worms
13:02	Half day fishing
13:48	Favorite two hours to fish
14:27	Ice cracks
16:25	Coaxers
17:21	Smoked sturgeon
18:12	Most enjoyable part of spearing
19:12	Moving around or staying put
20:15	A major irritation and Poygan lottery
21:36	Move from deep water over the years
22:00	Conclusion