

AUDIO TAPE INDEX FORM

Interviewee: Ed Gorchals

Interviewer: Dick Koerner

Interview Date: October 12, 2007

Summary description of tape contents:

Ed Gorchals is interviewed by Dick Koerner about his experiences sturgeon fishing on Lake Winnebago, Wisconsin and the surrounding area. He discusses rule and sport changes, set line and hook and line fishing in the past, and recipes for sturgeon and their caviar.

Brief Tape Index

Time	Topic
00:00	Introductions.
00:27	Ed Gorchals' background information.
00:55	Gorchals became involved in spearing by going with friends.
01:13	Hook and line sturgeon fishing.
02:04	Gorchals learned from a friend's father.
02:41	Changes in the sport.
03:04	Rule changes to protect the sturgeon.
03:58	Gorchals has been fishing for about 60 years.
04:40	Missed fish.
05:31	Putting things on the bottom to attract fish.
06:18	100 pound goal.
06:27	Differences between Winnebago shanties and East Shore shanties.
07:08	Favorite time to fish.
08:09	Landmarks to determine where to fish.
09:12	Three fish from one hole in one day.
10:03	In bad weather, use common sense.
10:58	Superstitions.
12:17	Caviar.
15:39	Set line fishing and dying the lines.
17:48	Recent Fremont incident, but overall fewer violators today than in the past.
19:29	Size limits.
20:10	Recipes for preparing sturgeon.
21:46	Favorite thing about spearing.
22:46	Thanks to Jurgensons for teaching others to spear.
23:20	End of interview.