

AUDIO TAPE INDEX FORM

Interviewee: Harry Kachur

Interviewer: Bill McAloon

Interview Date: March 27, 2007

Summary description of tape contents:

Bill McAloon interviews Harry Kachur about his experiences as a sturgeon fisher. Kachur considers himself largely unlucky, and most stories are mishaps he has had on the ice. He also mentions that he and his son Mike make decoys and tells a story about a poacher. Harry discusses his favorite cooking method of sturgeon and importance of the Sturgeon Advisory Committee.

Brief Tape Index

Counter #	Topic
00:00	McAloon introduces Kachur.
01:04	Kachur often fishes with his sons.
01:47	Equipment Kachur uses on ice.
02:36	Recent popularity of sturgeon fishing.
04:10	Other local sturgeon fishermen he knows.
07:00	Kachur breaks his leg helping to get a truck out of the lake.
08:06	Causes a blowup in a shanty after lighting the gas.
08:55	Kachur nearly dies after falling in ice hole.
15:14	Camaraderie and relaxation.
16:11	Poacher caught bragging by DNR.
16:34	Deep frying sturgeon.
17:51	Benefits and future of Sturgeon Advisory Committee.
20:00	End of interview.