

AUDIO TAPE INDEX FORM

Interviewee: Mike Remme

Interviewer: Dominic Carmona

Interview Date: January 25, 2007

Summary description of tape contents:

Mike Remme describes his personal fishing history in and around Green Bay in an interview conducted by Dominic Carmona. Mike began fishing at around age 13 and tells of his biggest catch. Also tells of his father, LeRoy Remme, catching the largest sturgeon one season, the death of a friend on the ice, and of the accidental destruction of a friend's shanty by fire.

Brief Tape Index

Time	Topic
00:00	Introduction. How Remme started fishing. Remme's father's 144 lb sturgeon story.
05:09	Mike's largest fish.
07:42	Preparing sturgeon.
08:24	Looking for clear water.
12:57	Patience and technique. Spearing excitement and adrenaline.
23:43	Clusters of people in one area is frustrating.
29:09	Wally Dunn dies of heart attack catching sturgeon.
34:00	Wally Dunn's shanty burns up.
36:32	End of Interview.