

Name of person interviewed: Dave and Judy Dutra [DD] [JD]

Place interview took place: Fairfield Inn, Working Waterfront Festival

Date and time of interview: September 25, 2011

Interviewer: Markham Starr [MS]

Transcriber: Laura Orleans

Abstract

Since the age of 10, Dave Dutra has fished out of Provincetown. Today, despite the strangle hold of regulations; Dave continues to “get by” with his wife Judy at his side. Judy is compiling a book of memoirs of their life.

Demographic information

Dave Dutra

Sex: Male

Ethnicity: White

Occupation: Fisherman, Owner F/V Richard and Arnold

Homeport: Provincetown, MA.

Judy Dutra

Sex: Female

Ethnicity: White

Occupation: Registered nurse, Author

Key words

Role

Commercial fisherman (captain crew)

General Social and Cultural Characteristics

Relationships with other fisherman

Gear and Fishing Technology

Boats, ships, vessels

Business and Economics of Fishing & other Maritime

Making a living

Family involvement

Business and economic effects of regulation

Fisheries Management

Regulations